

Unto The Lord

When I rise in the morning
I am filled with His love,
And I feel His great mercy
And for me that's enough
To give me strength to face
The challenges of my day.
With gratitude in my soul
I kneel down and I pray.

Chorus:

*Unto the Lord I give all my thoughts to Him;
As I seek His will He sheds light from within.
He watches o'er my sleep beneath the midnight skies.
With grateful heart unto the Lord I rise.*

It is faith in my Savior
That creates in me desire
To begin each day seeking
Words of truth to inspire.
As I take time to feast
My soul is nourished and fed.
In quiet hours I contemplate
All the things He has said.
